

Red Cross
1963 Centenary of the Red Cross

Austrian Red Cross:
Austrian Red Cross
was established on 14 March 1880 by Dr Adam Lichtenheld
of the Vienna General Hospital and is the biggest aid agency
in the country.

Print on the cover:
"Henri Dunant,
founder and promoter
of Red Cross

Whether his ashes
have long since blown away, what love created, lives and endures"

1965, XX International
Red Cross Conference

Stamp depicting Red Cross and Guaze

Text on back:
Delegates to the twentieth Int.Red Cross conference in Vienna will include Govt representatives from 126 signatories
to the Geneva convention and from the Red Crescent and the Red Lion with Red Sun. The aim and purpose of the conference will be to promote co-operation in the human and International sphere.
Since 1897, there has been no such conference in Austria, and it is thanks to the Austrian Red Cross that our country has the great honor.
