

Red Cross

Thailand Red Cross: The Thai Red Cross Society is a major humanitarian organization in Thailand, providing services as part of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. The society was founded in 1893 and is headquartered in Bangkok. It is governed by the Act on Thai Red Cross Society, Buddhist era 2461 (1918), and is supervised by the Council of Ministers. Its expenses are borne by the government. Its president is appointed by the king upon advice and consent of the council of ministers. The current president is Queen Sirikit who has held the position since 12 August 1956.

1 April 1963, Centenary of the Red Cross
Stamps: Tete-Beche pair depicting Centenary Emblem

Thailand
1939 Red Cross Fund, 75th Anniv. of membership of the International Red Cross

King Vajiravudh

1963, Centenary of the Red Cross
Tete-Beche Pair

Centenary Emblem

→ 60th Anniversary of Thai Red Cross Society
Dancer on Cross (3 values)